PARISH CORPORATION

Each Parish in the Diocese of Wilmington is a Non-Profit Corporation under Delaware Law governed by Trustees. In the Diocese of Wilmington, the parish corporation is a civil body created solely for legal purposes.

Parish Corporations are exempt, non-profit, religious corporations often referred to as 501(c) (3) corporations. Parish civil corporations are created to conduct certain temporal affairs of the Church in civil law so that such activity is recognized as civilly valid and to protect the ownership of property and the rights of the Church. In civil law the parish corporation hold title to the property and assets of the parish.

There are Five Parish Trustees for St. Thomas More Oratory—three are Ex-Officio members and officers, and two are Lay Trustees.

The Three Ex-Officio Trustees are: Bishop Malooly (Diocesan Bishop), Fr. Joseph McQuaide (Chancellor of the Diocese), and Fr. Ed Ogden, OSFS (Pastor).

Two Lay Trustees are elected each year as members of the Parish Corporation. This takes place by an annual election and recorded in the Book of Minutes. Generally, the trustees do not have regular meetings, but are convened by the Pastor as circumstances require.

The Lay Trustee is both a parishioner (a member of the Roman Catholic Church, which is governed by Canon Law) and a citizen (they follow the law of the State and thus fulfill the requirements for Religious Corporation).

Lay Trustees must be at least 25 years of age, a registered parishioner of St. Thomas More Oratory, and a practicing Catholic.

Obligations and Duties of the Lay Trustee:

The law requires an annual meeting of the trustees typically in January. The minutes of the meeting are recorded in the Book of Minutes.

Lay Trustees assist the pastor in the oversight of parish management and review all major decisions about the funds and property of the Oratory. Their consultation is required for: the acquisition, lease, and sale of real estate and other major assets; execution of contracts involving major financial commitments; borrowing money and incurring financial liability.

The Trustees review the Annual Financial Report and Oratory Budget.

The Trustees are informed of all legal issues related to the Oratory.

As Pastor of St. Thomas More Oratory I am nominating Jerome and Carroll Posatko as our Lay Trustees for 2019. Jerome and Carroll will serve their first term effective January 20, 2019. Fred and Mary Chapman have faithfully and generously served as Lay Trustees since 2016. I will ask the Oratory community to vote for Jerome and Carroll on Sunday, January 20, 2019.
