St. Peter's Cathedral Collection

The Cathedral of Saint Peter is in need of our help. The weekend of August 17 & 18, a special collection for the maintenance and preservation of the Cathedral of Saint Peter will be taken up in all parishes in our diocese. Please be as generous as you can. For more information about the Cathedral, please visit the Cathedral's website at www.cathedralofstpeter.com. For a video tour of the Cathedral, and a tour of the Cathedral's 100 year-old pipe organ, visit the diocesan website at www.cdown.org/cathedral.

Together, we can help assure that our Cathedral will remain a place of beauty and prayer for generations to come

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes
through which his Compassion looks out upon the world.

Yours are the feet
with which he walks to do good.

Yours are the hands
with which he blesses all the world.

- St. Teresa of Avila

TO GO BAGS NEEDED!

July is our month to help the Empowerment Center. Help provide a "go-bag" and drop it off in the social hall of the Oratory.

Each bag should include:

- a protein source (microwaveable pasta meal, single serving soup/stew, tuna lunch, etc.)
- a snack (granola bar/cracker sandwiches, etc.)
- an applesauce or individual fruit cup
- water or juice box
- spoon & napkin.

Each lunch should be put together in a gallon sized Ziploc type bag or plastic grocery bag, & all expiration dates should be at least 3 months from date of purchase.

THANK YOU FR. ED!!

We sent Fr. Ed off in Eagles style to take over his new position as Dean at DeSales University at the end of June. His contact information there is as follows:

Salesian Sunday Reflection Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Today's first readings focus on our need to focus on the providence of God as well as to embrace the cross (our commitments) of Jesus if we wish to partake of our new creation in Christ. Here are a few thoughts of St. Francis on the value of simplicity in becoming Christ-like:

Simplicity is nothing else but a pure and simple act of charity. This act of simple charity has only one aim and one desire: to love God. (Conf. Coneiro, 96-7) Simplicity is a virtue. Truly simple persons spend their time with the Lord. Learn from the dove to love God in the simplicity of your heart. Doves have only one single partner for whom they do everything. They are quite certain of their love and happy to be in each other's company. That is, obtain in yourselves an increase of divine love through the simplicity of your heart. (Conf. Coneiro, 97)

Simplicity removes from our hearts all the worry and anxiety that we have searching to know the art of loving God. The only way we can experience and grow in the love of God is to start doing the things that please God. Simplicity includes all the means prescribed to each person, according to one's particular vocation, to acquire God's love. (Conf. Coneiro, 98)

Simplicity is opposed to all kinds of subtlety, cheating and duplicity, which are ways we deceive our neighbor. Simplicity requires that our interior disposition match our exterior behavior. This does not imply that we ought to necessarily reveal exteriorly all our interior feelings. God's love requires that we admit our agitated feelings so that we are able with God's love to transform them so that they serve God's good and wholesome purpose. (Conf. Coneiro, 99-100). This is to say that by cooperating with God's grace through the use of reason and our free will all of our destructive feelings become transformed through virtuous acts of doing God's will.

On the one hand we are told to take great care of our perfection and progress, and on the other hand not to think about it. The misery of the human spirit is that it never follows the middle course, but usually runs to extremes. It is these extremes that we must avoid. (Conf. Coneiro, p.103). In the end, true simplicity seeks our well-being in letting ourselves be led and directed absolutely by God's Spirit. (Ibid)
