Congratulations also to Jonny Setzler who was confirmed by Fr. Ed on Memorial Day weekend!

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord,
by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

June 29 &
June 30

Please join us after Mass to thank Fr Ed for sharing his gifts with the Oratory community as our pastor for the last four years and wish him well as he prepares to become the Dean of Students at De Sales University. Light refreshments will be served downstairs after each Mass.

COME, HOLY SPIRIT

Published by St. Anthony Messenger Press, 28 West Liberty Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45202

Written by Jim Auer, 2016

1. Heal our wounds—We all have some painfully broken relationships or the echoing words of an abusive adult who said, “You’ll never amount to anything.” Sometimes it’s our own disappointment with ourselves. Come Holy Spirit, show us where we need healing and bring it about.
2. Give us strength anew—Who needs this? Caregivers for the elderly; Single parents; Teens who have to be the adult in the household; Parents working two jobs; College students working and going to school simultaneously. Come Holy Spirit, you know what exhaust us. Be there when it happens.
3. Ignite our dryness—For years, unknown to all but one person, Mother Teresa (of all people) felt an agonizing distance from God, sometimes doubting whether God cared or even existed. Yet she steadfastly continued doing what she thought she was called to do. Come Holy Spirit, help us feel the warmth of God’s tender love.
4. Wash away our guilt—Even when through faith we know we’ve been forgiven, a residue of guilt and regret can hang around us like the proverbial monkey on our back. Sometimes guilt and regret can stand in the way of fully accepting God’s forgiving love. Come Holy Spirit, let us know that the sins of our past are exactly that: past.
5. Bend the stubborn heart—We probably don’t recall being two years old and newly discovering the satisfying thrill of saying, “No!” But we did. A bit of that two-year-old survives and reappears occasionally. It no longer shouts defiance. But when we pray, “Thy will be done,” it sometimes whispers, “except...” Come Holy Spirit, help us move from “except” to “I accept.”
6. Melt the frozen, warm the chill—Are we frozen into an endless compulsion to acquire more and more things we don’t really need, while we tune out the less fortunate? Come Holy Spirit, warm our hearts when they become cold to our sisters and brothers in need.
7. Make us one—Francis de Sales uses a unique term in his Treatise on the Love of God called unidiverse. It attempts to describe the reality that we are all unique and different yet we have so much more in common—a call for unity in the midst of our diversity.. Come Holy Spirit, bring us together and unite us in your Spirit.
